

Exercise: 03.

Fill in the blanks using the antonyms of the underlined words.

Use the given words. (unhappy, unnatural, marvelous, questioned, small)

- I. Saman had a horrible surprise for his last birthday. (_____)
- II. When I ask him what he was doing, he responded back angrily. (_____)
- III. She had a very happy childhood. (_____)
- IV. A large number of laborers have filed complaints against the administration. (_____)
- V. The furniture displayed in the showroom was made of natural materials. (_____)

Exercise: 04.

Replace synonyms for the bold words and rewrite the given sentences.

Use the given words. (finished, remain, arranged, quiet, glad, frightened, dream, intelligent, careful, counsel)

- I. The librarian asked students to be silent in the library.

- II. People should be considerate on others as human beings.

- III. Nihal completed his research presentation last week.

- IV. The baby girl was scared in the dark.

- V. The function was very successful as everything was planned.

- VI. Fishermen were asked to stay indoors during the adverse weather condition.

- VII. Some students are very clever in solving mathematics quiz.

- VIII. Students are asked to consult the teacher in-charge of counseling if they have any issue.

- IX. I had a goal to be a translator.

- X. Grandparents were thrilled to see their grandchildren.
